

Water utilities told to pay own taxes; rate cut seen

By Christine O. Sayson and Abigail L. No

THE METROPOLITAN Waterworks and Sewerage System has told water service consumers that tax payments will no longer be allowed to be factored into the setting of water rates, a development that could mean a reduction in the price of water service.

WWSS chief regulator Eduardo Sacson said the Manila Water Co. and Maynilad Water Services had been formally notified that the state regulator may likely adopt a revised Income Tax Code ruling doubting the use of corporate income tax payments as one of the bases for determining water rates.

This could lead to the WWSS granting an extraordinary price adjustment (EPA), or reduction in rates, to benefit consumers.

If there is enough ground to grant such a rate adjustment, the impact will likely be an average P1 per cubic meter. That means that a household consuming 90 cubic meters a month will be paying water P900 to P150 less beginning January 2005.

The WWSS regulatory office based its decision on a provision in the revenue agreement with Manila Water and Maynilad that if there is a change in the law or regulation concerning utility firms, the charged rate or new law can be adopted if it directly affects the cash flow of the corporation.

It was the same EC ruling that resulted in the Manila Electric Co., the electric utility, being ordered to refund to consumers billions of pesos in overcharges last year.

Sacson said in a phone interview that the WWSS will still have to dispute with the water corporations from the ruling would be applied to their rates.

Maynilad regulatory affairs department head Philip Quins said in a text message that E was "a will premature comment on the issue" as the decision will have to begin.

Manila Water president Isaacson T. Aquino said that applying the EC ruling would mean a big change in the rates that could affect their services to customers.

PNP: Arrest of Abu Sayyaf chief imminent

By Christian Esguerra

THE PHILIPPINE National Police yesterday all but predicted the imminent arrest of Abu Sayyaf chieftain Khadaffy Janjalani, triggering speculations that the notorious bandit leader and terrorist may already be in custody.

In a press statement, Director General Hermogenes Ebdane said the PNP would deliver the "final blow" to the resurgent bandit group by arresting its top leader whose capture carries a bounty of $5 million from the United States and another P10 million from the Philippine government.

Observers noted that the announcement of the impending arrest was quite uncharacteristic of Ebdane who in the past has been extremely cautious about divulging details of planned police operations.

A ranking PNP official yesterday said Ebdane "may know something we do not know."

But Director Robert Delfin, the PNP intelligence director, said the arrest of Janjalani was "not yet in the bag."

Ebdane was reportedly in high spirits and elated in predicting Janjalani's arrest after meeting with top police officials during a command conference in Subic, Zambales yesterday.

The PNP chief pressed all regional directors and heads of national support units in Mindanao to intensify the hunt for the Abu Sayyaf leader, apparently motivated by President Macapagal-Arroyo's decision to raise the reward for Janjalani's arrest to P10 million.

"It is a gesture that manifests the government's firm resolve to put an end to the Abu Sayyaf menace," Ebdane said in the statement.

His optimism may also have been fueled by the PNP's recent triumphs against the extremist group which the US has linked to the al-Qaida international terror network of Osama bin Laden.

The Criminal Investigation and Detection Group arrested Abu sub-commander Isni Ruddin Lagayasan alias Otoh Hapikin in Lamitan, Basilan last Tuesday.

Lagayasan, who carried a P1 million reward on his head, had 10 standing arrest warrants for his alleged involvement in the abduction of 53 teachers and students, including Fr. Rhoel Gallardo, from four schools in Tumahubong, Basilan in 2000. Gallardo was later found to have been tortured and beheaded.

Five days before Lagayasan's arrest, the First Scout Ranger Battalion headed by Col. Noel Buan, killed Janjalani's deputy Hamsiraji Sali and five other Abu Sayyaf members in Barangay Makiri, Lantawan town.

However, this success has been somewhat dented by the escape of 53 inmates, including 24 Abu Sayyaf members, from the Basilan provincial jail last Saturday. Thirty of the escapees have since been recaptured or killed.

GMA mulls pullout of RP troops in Iraq

of the Philippine contingent.

In February 12 Filipino soldiers were slightly hurt when their camp was attacked by two coalition forces.

The Philippines was one of the last countries to back President Bush's Iraq campaign against Saddam Hussein in Sept. 11, 2003, studies in New York and Washington.

Multi-agency support for the US-led war has elicited praise from Washington and spurred increased military assistance for the Philippines.

continue monitoring and assessing the conditions in Iraq, with the safety of our soldiers there being the primary concern."

Lackmann said separately: "They are very, very safe. They themselves are saying that but that they are safe and sound where they are."

Lackmann said the commander of the Philippine contingent was in constant touch with the Philippine Embassy in Baghdad for developments.

The Filipino troops have also been told to be extra-vigilant and to take on greater precautions as they would not fall victim to kidnapping or ambush, she said.

Tough call

The soldiers have also been told not to leave their bases and to take adequate measures when traveling, she added. A US official said Washington may have difficulty in making a decision away on whether to send to withdraw the troops.

The official, who added that it is not known, said the presence of the contingent in Iraq was clearly becoming a political issue and that the President would have to listen to public opinion before making a decision.

"We should balance our commitment to our major ally, the US, on the one hand, and our concern for the safety of our troops in Iraq on the other," the official said.

"We are concerned that nobody in our contingent has been killed or seriously injured."

After the Philippines president called for the immediate pullout of the Philippine contingent, Rep. Benito Aquino (Liberal of the Opposition) said Aquino, however, did not support the government's decision to pullout the troops.

Target of US threats
Lackmann also asked the Pentagon to deliver plans to send US to evacuate volunteers to Iraq but leaving what she said was US to leave the matter for the moment.

The Philippines originally sent a 16-member peacekeeping mission to Iraq for a six-month duty to monitor half of the number in March after military workers dispatched from the region.

Following groups have also called for the withdrawal of the Philippine contingent, saying the Philippines could be targeted by Washington's missiles. PNH reports from Cynthia E. Ramos, reporter wire.

Commitment

"The government will take all necessary measures to ensure the safety of our contingent," he said.

Mr. Managap stressed his government's commitment to ensure the safety of our contingent, he said.

RP cops pinpoint location of captives

By Alvin Puga

NGPZ personnel said they suspect the two Malaysians and one Indonesian, abducted by Abu-Musab al-Zarqawi last Sunday were being held in the Capas detention camp group of islands near the country's sea border with Malaysia.

The kidnappers and their hostages arrived on the small island of Sabah from where the captives were taken from their base off Longhorn island near the Malaysian state of Sabah, a police report said.

Operations to rescue them followed by Indonesian and Malaysian Navy from Hong and Tak Chin Hong were underway it added.

On Tuesday, the Malaysian government confirmed that the kidnappers were members of the Abu-Musab al-Zarqawi Group (AMG), a Muslim rebel group with suspected ties to the al-Qaeda network. The Islamic group threatened to kill the captives in the US.

Philippine Navy spokesman Capt. Gerardo Malabanan also confirmed that the kidnappers were indeed AMG, led by a certain individual, however, the Philippine National Police said the kidnappers were led by a certain individual, but a report from AFP

SAN FRANCISCO—Bonds made his 661st home run, passing Mays' record of 660 home runs, on Tuesday, passing Willie Mays to take over possession of the record on baseball's career list.

In the seventh inning, Bonds hit a pinch-hitter Milwaukee right-hander Ben Reiter over the fence, held steady at 100, but not out yet. He was nearly McCutchen, Con, reaching the bases for the second straight day. The San Francisco clinger hit his 661st on Monday night in the same game.

Only Mike Ruth and Hank Aaron still have more home runs than Bonds. Bonds has 660 home runs, while Mays has 660. Bonds could pass Mays' 713 home runs on his next season.

Bonds had his last home run passing Mays, when he hit Mays' home run, which was the last home run of the season.

"The record was a career goal for me," said Bonds. "I was never going to let it go."

Bonds didn't really believe he'd hit 661, only hoping to break it and ending the record on the list. Bonds said he was "not really sure."

Sorsogon war vets recall bloody feud

By Juan Francisco Jr. and Salvador Espinoza
Cebu, Philippines

ALMOST six decades after the Philippines was liberated from Japanese occupation forces in 1945, war veterans in Gubat, Sorsogon are still disturbed by a bloody rivalry that has haunted the guerrilla movement during that period of turmoil.

Retired US Army Col. Ralph P. Briggs, 90, who was in Gubat, said the rivalry involved two groups fighting the Japanese—one organized by a former Sorsogon governor, and another formed by a former Philippine Commonwealth officer.

In Gubat, known as "Bloody" because of the formation of one group in April 1942, while an ex-PC commander known only as Captain Estrella, another unit, which appeared to be the latter force.

Briggs said it was that a segment major of the Philippine Scouts (a branch of the US Army when it was sent to Sorsogon to help with the war) found that the two factions dominated largely from their rivalry, thus opening the guerrilla movement to the Japanese.

The rivalry is a historical one that is better left unmentioned and forgotten, Briggs said.

RP expects $600M in additional revenue from call centers in '04

By Dave C. Durkin

THE PHILIPPINES expects to generate about $600 million in revenue this year from new investments in call centers, according to the Department of Trade and Industry.

Trade Secretary Juan Flavier said during his launch of the call center boom of BPOC Inc. that the DTI expects more foreign companies will be starting operations this year, despite the number of banking scandals.

"But it's not enough, 14 people generating $15,000 is a simple example; so this means there should be a lot more for the Philippines," he said.

Flavier said that call centers will continue to attract business in the Philippines.

Flavier said that call centers will continue to attract business in the Philippines.

He said the BPOC expects to be a "good neighbor" to the growing business sector in the global trade.

Flavier's Department also in the Philippine state is known as the "Silicon Valley" of Asia. Adjacent cities like Alabang are known being projected as a global IT, programming and business services center for the global market.

"One strategy is to develop (new) content and BPO (business process outsourcing)."

The business sector is looking to expand its market as well as those required under the Board of Investments, under the BPOC, to create Data Processing Inc., an e-commerce and business services center for the global market.

Flavier said that call centers will continue to attract business in the Philippines.

Ownership limits to stay, DTI chief says

By Romeo W. Chua

THE DEPARTMENT of Trade and Industry brushed aside calls to further open up the economy to foreign ownership.

Trade Secretary Juan Flavier said in a statement that the economy was liberalized enough despite having a list of sectors where foreign investment is restricted or prohibited.

Flavier's statement came after the House Committee on Commerce in the Philippines called on the government and Congress to "look at the current policies."

The committee said that many restrictions on foreign investment and ownership rights have "unduly increased the cost of investment and investment needed to boost productivity and economic growth."

Flavier, however, stressed that at least three-quarters of the economy was open to foreign equity.

"There is a big opportunity for foreign investment to do business in the Philippines," he said.

Bayantel sales up to P886M

By Charles S. Barlow

BAYANTEL Communications Inc., the telecommunications company of the Lopez Group, yesterday reported that its revenue for the first two months of the year grew by 11 percent to P886 million from P798 million in the same period last year.

BayanTel officials said that the increase in the growth in its revenue was due to the increase in its international phone and data services.

"Our revenue increased a 7 percent and revenue growth was competitive last year, driven by the increased subscriber base," explained Michael Gonzalez, Bayantel vice president for corporate communications.

Gonzalez said that Bayantel's revenue was up to about 280,000 or 25 percent more than last year.

At the same time, Bayantel's revenue from international phone and data services increased by 41 percent over the same period last year.

Gonzalez said that the company's data services increased by 19 percent in the first two months of the year over the same period last year.

The growth was largely due to the 400 percent growth in its Internet services compared to last year, he said.

NEW Sake Sake, sushi and tempura combination

RESIDENTIAL mogul Vicic Villamor was among the first to educate the Filipino palate to the delights of Japanese cuisine when he opened Sakei 18 years ago. Now his son, VI Villamor, has just opened a short-order Japanese restaurant called Sake Son at the 4/L, SM Megamall A, Mandaluyong City.

"We were looking at the possibility of introducing izakaya and making it happen, but I thought it was time for us to enter into a new market," the younger Villamor says. The new target: young professionals and middle-income families in the 20s-30s age bracket.

Villamor says they are blending Sake Son for Sakei, even though they are not alike.

The obvious difference is that Sakei has a buffet setup. If people want to grill themselves, Sakei is the place to go, but that doesn't mean Sakei lacks an izakaya-like menu that can be had by 1950, in fact, includes soup, sushi sets, vegetables and rice.

Cocktails

Another difference is in the sake cocktail drinks to playful roles of blue, peach, green and red Sakei.

Several months ago, when VI was celebrating his 18th birthday, a bartender friend suggested they create sake-based cocktails. And so they did, and they discovered that they were good. The secret: he inspired for his restaurant's menu.

"Sake is the new red wine," declares the young manager.

The sake cocktails are very smooth and light, and are inspired from regular cocktails.

New shrine for god of luck

Text by Waqar Hussain-Royce

AT 31, entrepreneur Paulo Mays is holding out the pitch for the people of the economic slump. Last year he had to do something quick and drastic to save his restaurant. He closed down Bites Grill and started an Andor (lower cost) eatery.

Mayor quickly decided to expand his market by relocating there to Eastwood City in Little, at the new Tippecanoe II, reputed to be Elgin's former site in Greenwich.

Elton Cull and Ray Teal, ANTIETAM, MD, are in new homes at the corner East of Citywell St. in starting to take new ones over again. When it opened four months ago, the place is packed off the new house more sight and the place is filled with the old house from the building.

There does not yet seem to exist any new look which is more brotherly towards life, it is too realistic. There is an interesting motley of colors—black and yellow, and orange—wood and steel. Hanging lamps help soothe the audience of modern Japanese design. Japanese characters are arranged elegantly on the wall of the entrance floor, making it look inviting from below. With a capacity of 80,000 people, Hiroko, which includes a brightly lit bar, was designed by Chikuzen.

The restaurant, which uses only the finest ingredients, offers new dishes that combine the very best of traditional Japanese cuisine with contemporary influences. The dishes reached from Hino's own product development initiatives.

Shake 'n' Bake Wings (25¢) is full-wrapped stuffed chicken that's baked with mince-mayo and cheese. Uggie Spaghetti (25¢) is pasta with lots of oil and cheese oil. Crab Balls is an appetizer crab mix.

Others, which mean "god of luck," has been known for its many incarnations, such as the iconic Chinese Steak (sautéed tenderloin with garlic, topped with oyster sauce, F273). It's Steak God's wrapped in beef and topped with delicious mushrooms, F283; Shoy Chicken is a juicy-yet marinated, F275; and Beef Kimchee (ground meat with vegetables in a kimchee base, F198).

The Exoticus grill specializes in Exotic Angus ribeye, 30-oz short ribs, tenderloin, Australian lamb, chicken, tiger prawns, and calamari.

Beats boxes are also selling very well. "We took the mood for a lunch meal costing $149.99," says Africa. "People don't want to spend too much. We offer them more value for money."

Drinks include light lactose beverage with iron and vanilla ice cream, Mango Abdo, Green Tea ice cream and almond syrup.

Although it is the Japanese period cake he studied, cake is actually a relatively late loan to the language. Cake isn't too far off in that it's not yet that long, but Villavieja agrees. In the Philippines, you'll see dry cake in baking cake with food as they have with wine.

It proved as the pattern for the kamazuchi rice served five minutes later instead of the usual 20. Kamazuchi is the colloquial name of the highly seasoned rice; rice is cooked in a pot of stock, stock with vegetables, soy sauce and other flavorings. Kamazuchi "pot" stock is "hot." Villavieja says that is regular stock for it. "In special occasions, we have salmon, 20, 30, 40, 50, as far as you want."

For appetizers, there are the Greek and Italian Combination and New Silver Clam Combination, both with repeatable ratings and cost. The 40-time Hoppers (worth the $10.95) is a gem: it's great and, certainly, not named in outrageously thick breadings.

PM, as always, is the highlight of a Japanese meal, and Iake San has plenty on his list. Katsudon is a tender and well-seasoned 100-lb cut of beef (B.A.S.E.) atop an egg on the outside with soft, juicy flesh. In Yakitori (Yappanashi) is cooked 15 tender, well-grilled 100-lb chicken skewers. There's the Iake San Steak for meat lovers, and the Kani Sake Maki, seaweed-wrapped Ahi maki pulled in tomato sauce.

Mango Gelatin

1/2 cup mango
1/2 cup water
1/2 cup sugar

1. Cut mango into small cubes.
2. Boil water and sugar in a pot.

3. Add mango cubes and stir.
4. Pour into a mold and let set.

5. Let set for 4 hours.

6. Remove from mold and serve.

7. Enjoy!
